Foreword

JUST as young knights in medieval times
Went forth into a world bursting into new blossom
under the sun of chivalry,
Went forth seeking opportunity
"To do good, serve God, honor the king"———

So, the 1934 graduates of Parkersburg High School
Go bravely into a world brightened by fresh hope
after the darkness of the depression,
Go bravely, seeking opportunity
"To promote the good life under Divine guidance."

Dedication

THIS YEAR we wish to dedicate the Parhischan to one who was known and respected by Parkersburg High School students for over forty-two years. The death of Miss Anna Alexander on March 18, 1934, terminated a period of valuable service to the mathematics department of our Junior division. Although her work is finished, she will long be remembered by those who were her students. By this dedication we have tried to pay some small tribute to the memory of one who outstandingly exemplified the knightly virtues during her four decades of service at the round table of education in Parkersburg.

MR. E. E. CHURCH

Four years ago, when the June class of '34 entered the ninth grade of this school, a new principal was here to direct us. Mr. Church came to Parkersburg High School from Martinsburg in 1930. These past four years have been especially difficult ones for the public school systems everywhere, but under the guidance of Mr. Church our school has progressed steadily. Since coming to Parkersburg he has served as President of the State Educational Asociation and Vice President of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

MR. L. S. MICHAEL

Mr. L. S. Michael, assistant principal, has been a great help to us in selecting our curriculum during our high school career, and in keeping us at our work. Although many of us remember long hours of suspense outside the door of his office, there are few who do not feel that the conference which followed the waiting has permanently benefitted them. We, the members of the graduating classes, wish to take this opportunity to express our gratitude and appreciation to him for his valuable assistance.

In Memoriam

Georgia Williams

On August 28th, 1932, at the age of sixteen, our beloved Georgia Williams passed away. Until the time of her death Georgia was a member of the January 1934 class. She was pleasant and courteous to her teachers and fellow students. In her studies she was ambitious and conscientious, winning the respect of all. She has left us behind, but in our hearts there is still a little corner in which her memory will always remain.

The entire class expresses its deepest sympathy to those who were dearer to her in life than we know, her family.

Robert Wright

On June the 24th, 1931, the students of Parkersburg High School received the shock of Robert Wright's drowning. He, while swimming in the vicinity of Blennerhassett Island, was pulled under by an undercurrent. His cousin who was with him during the afternoon did not happen to be near him at the time of the mishap. Robert was a very quiet sort of person whom everybody liked. He worked hard at his studies and took a real interest in making a success of his school-life. The class extends to his parents its sympathy in their loss of a devoted son.

SENIOR PICNIC

One of the most enjoyable entertainments for the graduates is the Senior picnic which is generally held during Commencement Week. However, because of the cold weather which usually accompanies midyear graduation time, the January class held its outing on October 10th, 1933, at the Masonic Park at Marietta, Ohio.

The early part of the afternoon was spent in games such as baseball, pitching quoits, and making use of the amusement facilities, namely, teeters, swings, and the like. After tiring themselves with these amusements which are supposed to be almost forgotten by "dignified seniors," a delightful picnic supper, consisting of all those necessary details which make a successful picnic, was served.

COLOR DAY

Each year the graduating class of Parkersburg High School has set aside one day of its program as Color Day. Accordingly on November 8, the members of the January class of '34 displayed their class colors of blue and silver, and presented a delightful assembly program for the enjoyment of the entire student body.

For the presentation, the stage was artistically decorated in the colors of the class. The program consisted of popular selections played by the Blennerhassett Islanders, and others by several of the Senior II's.

At the close of school the class flag which floated by the side of the American emblem, was slowly lowered, and another day of joy in the lives of the graduates passed on, leaving a beautiful memory.

SENIOR TEA DANCE

Instead of the usual afternoon tea which the Senior I girls give for the Senior II girls, the entire graduating class was entertained on Saturday, January 20th, with a tea-dance in the high school gymnasium. The gym was effectively decorated with blue and silver streamers suspended from the balcony.

Receiving the guests were the class sponsors, Miss Bonnie Kerr, Miss Ethel Musgrave, and Mr. A. C. Taylor, and several prominent officers of both classes. Mrs. E. E. Church presided over the punch bowl.

During the early part of the afternoon a delightful program was presented by talented members of the Senior I class. From three to five o'clock a dance program was played by the Hottentots.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

On Tuesday evening, January 23, the Junior II class entertained the mid-year graduates with the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. This year, dancing was added to the evening's entertainment. The music was furnished by the Blennerhassett Islanders.

The Seniors were received in the library by the class sponsors, school officials, and class officers. Following the reception they went to the gymnasium which had been transformed for the occasion into a lovely "Winter Place."

Between the banquet and the dance, the guests were entertained in the auditorium with an enjoyable program.

CLASS HISTORY

On a memorable day in the annals of Parkersburg High School's history a class of about 150 ambitious freshmen arrived at the institution. After looking all over the building for the auditorium we found it hiding on the second floor. From this place we were assigned to our home rooms. On being settled at our work, we began the grind to last through four years just for the prized bit of paper—a diploma. Imagine the disgust of our whole class when, instead of becoming Freshmen Two's, we were classed as 9A's, of the Junior High.

At last we were sophisticated sophomores. But there was no time to be proud of the fact, because we were engrossed, or lost, in the mazes of Geometry, Latin, or other uninteresting subjects. In fact some of our members almost became walking libraries when carrying books home.

Now we could really be proud. The reason? We were Juniors. We elected James Keenan president of our class. The event of greatest importance in our Junior Year was the Junior-Senior Banquet. Under the direction of Miss Neal and Miss Waller the banquet proved a great success. The setting was in Spain, with senoritas, guitars, and all the trimmings.

A few days after this, we became a great and dignified class of Seniors. The class was not great in numbers, because it had dwindled to 102. This semester sped by on wings.

Finally we had reached the noble and exalted position of Senior II's. Oh, how jealously the boys watched that front door! Many a lad was ejected for trying to "rush" the entrance. With a little high-powered campaigning on the side, the following officers were elected at one meeting: Bernard Wright, President; Conard Jones, Vice-President; Yvonne Sturm, Secretary, and Betty Hayman, Treasurer. Color Day was first of the series of events. On that day all Senior II's wore strips of blue and silver ribbon, our class colors. The whole class wonders how the cameras sustained the shock when our pictures were taken. Finally came three events in one week: Sermon, banquet, and commencement. What a great thrill that was on the night of January 26 to receive that diploma, a certificate for four years' work. The illustrious (?) Class of January, 1934, hopes that it has shown the way to faltering sophomores or juniors—the way to a diploma and success.

VIRGIL NAPIER.

CLASS JEST

Order in the class (if possible).
The School versus the Senior II Class.
Charges—Causing gray-haired parents and old-maid teachers.
Judge: "Mary Louise Orrahood, why did Don Hughes go to your house on November 28?"
M. L. O.: "To write the Class Jest, or something."
Judge: "Phyllis Green, why do you two-time Jimmy Keenan?"
P. G. "I don't two-time Jimmy. Charles is like my big brother."
Judge: "Bill Sharp, why do you dislike Tommy Deem?
B. S.: "He took 'Zip' to the Wheeling game."
Judge: "Catherine Downing, why aren't more high school boys getting jobs at the Viscose?"
C. D.: "I must have lost my technique."
Judge: "Bill Stebbins, what is Edna Cochran's favorite pastime coming home from a picnic?"
B. S.: "Holding hands."
Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Case closed.

When your girl is blue,
And you are bored,
Don't wonder what to do,
Call in the Common Horde.

The latest triangle is Johnson, Bargeloh, and Weaver. Wonder who will win this time.

Everyone knows why Conard Jones dates that little Bettie Davis on South Side—they always give him a big feed.

And while we are on the subject. Miss Kincade has designed a new hat with a rubber to put under the chin to keep from losing hats on the Charleston Pike. What are you going to do about the wrist watch, Genevieve?

Who is the girl out back of the city park Jack Gill goes to see every night? Do you have a nice time, Jack?

We now wish to thank you for your kind attention, also Mr. Donald Leroy Hughes wishes to thank the teachers for their kind cooperation in helping him to leave the dear old institution, cell No. 212, and we both hope all hard feelings will be forgotten one hundred years from now.

MARY LOUISE ORRAHOOD,
DON L. HUGHES.

CLASS PROPHECY

It is January, 1944. Just ten years ago the 1934 January class of Parkersburg High School graduated. Being interested in those young men and women graduates, we thought we would investigate and find out just what had become of them.

This is what we found:

Betty Bauer is the editor-in-chief of the Murphytown Daily News. Since Betty's appointment to the position, the town has become very famous.

Betty Anne Congrove is now an agent for the Southeastern Life Insurance Company.

Bernard Wright is working for the Blonde Manufacturing Company, of which Mr. Blonde is President. (Blondes always did seem to be his choice).

Emily Weaver is still seen places with her many admirers. She hasn't decided on any special one, as yet. Poor fellows! I bet she has at least a dozen "diamonds."

Kay Downing has returned from England where she met her "Duke."

John Mackey is now a famous Congressman from "Arguem" County. Go to it, John. You may win yet.

Genevieve Kincade is head stenographer in the rapidly growing Parkersburg Ice Company. Incidentally "Jiggs" says this isn't such a "hot" business.

Max Jackson and Ashford Broadwater are doing their duty as coaches for Belpre Tech.

Don Hughes, much to the surprise of everyone, graduated from college in the usual four years. What happened? How did you do it, Shirley?

Mary Ellen Jones and Ruth Sims are now starring in Lucille Joerger's newest play. That's fine. But how did they do it?

Yvonne Sturm and Frances Penn are competing with Ethel Shutta and Leah Ray for radio honors. Poor Ethel and Leah, you haven't a chance now!

Mary Louise Orrahood has taken Miss Waitneight's place at P. H. S. There are very few absentees now, but we notice that Mary Louise still puts Miss in front of her name.

Joe Costilow and Bill Fouts are playing in a new stage production at Pettyville. They tried playing in Parkersburg but the competition was too keen.

Jimmy Keenan now owns his own newspaper. Phyllis Greene is head of the advertising department.

Marian Bartlett and Betty Stewart are store managers in Kresge's newest store at Vienna.

Meredith Ayers is no longer single. She finally "took" Bill and is living happily in two rooms.

Mary Ruth Beckwith has finally gotten her "Mutt" and is now playing "Loose" on Broadway.

Dolores Bee is head of the "Extensive Library" in Williamstown. She is very fond of her position and we are sure that in another 10 years she will be at the head of Dear Ol' P. H. S.

Juanita Bennett and Gladys Bower have a very elite dress shop in Smithville. It takes all papa's month's pay to buy a dress there. So we've heard! Poor Papa!

Kenny Caplinger is the chef for the Killem Cafe Syndicate. Making any money, Kenny?

Then we saw Opal Carder and Madaline Freeman. Well, you'd never guess it, but they are heads of a candy and chewing gum factory. They can now help themselves to refreshments.

CLASS PROPHECY (Continued)

Violet Chambers and Betty Hayman have won several typing medals. They are both working on the Puddlebury Paper with Popeye. How are the Bruiser Boys, eh, Gals?

Elizabeth Gault and Mary Bridges are still in Vienna and they seem satisfied to be running a drug store! ! ! ! Disappointed in love? ? ? ?

Ruth Turley has realized her school-day ambition and is now an opera star. More power to you.

Marie Hitt has enlarged her beauty shop till it is now the largest in Belleville. We wonder what happened to Nile? ? ?

We found Wilhelmina Samuels still trying to catch up on sleep. We wonder if she ever will?

Lillian Kelley and Jessie Roush are managing branches of the 5 and 10 cent stores. Is the candy good, girls?

Bob Whitlatch and Foster Shields are now pulling down several thousand a week in Hollywood. Pass the tip along, boys; we need some, too.

Virgil Napier is now a great man. He is said to be the most learned man of his age. That is what you get for studying so hard in P. H. S.

Billy Stebbins has finally become a painter. We hope to go back to Marrtown some day and find a medal there for his greatestpainting.

Between watching doors and working in a drug store, Keith Jackson seems to have developed a combination of the two. He is now owner of a hotel and a drugstore in Harrisville.

Ray Owens and Bob Rockhold have become great painters, too, of houses.

Jenis Frashure is training to take Miss Boette's place as a teacher of voice.

Bob Brown is going to graduate from the Seminary in June. We wonder if he will really become a good minister.

John Rogers is now a struggling young doctor. Have you found any patients yet, John? We know they are few and far between.

Carl McKibben and Wilfred Childers have now realized their ambition and have now a family each. Well, are you satisfied?

Ruby Vance and Ernestine Sharps are renting an apartment, and each has a job as a governess.

William Haynes is now a great historian. We always knew he made S's in history for some good reason.

Charles Britton has made good the statement in the Senior Play and is now the fond husband of Thelma McDade.

Freda Simmons is still just running about town. Don't you ever think of settling? Poor boy! Guess he can't find the right mate.

There should be some more to this, and there will be as soon as we find in what city the rest of the graduates are. I am sure we will have a complete list for you by the first of the month. It may be better than this one. We hope so. We will not leave our address, as we are sure it would not be good for our skins. Some day we will get a permanent address (when we are sure you have forgotten the things said here).

ARDETH HOWARD.

SENIOR DANCE

The June Seniors successfully began their round of activities this year with a sport dance, given on April sixth. Since this was the first class dance to be given in the school, the Seniors and their friends especially enjoyed it. This dance was given in the gym to the music of the Hottentot orchestra.

SENIOR TEA DANCE

The June graduating class was honored by a tea dance, given for them by the Senior I's on Friday afternoon, June 1, 1934. The gymnasium was made attractive with decorations of cerise, black, and silver, which are the Senior II class colors.

During the short intermission, punch and wafers were served.

Interspersed with the dances were several variety numbers which added greatly to the enjoyment of the music.

The orchestra was exceptionally good, making the Senior farewell dance an altogether delightful and memorable affair.

THE PICNIC

On May 31, the members of the June class enjoyed a picnic at the Masonic Park on the Muskingum River near Marietta, Ohio. The members of the class drove to the picnic park about two-thirty in the afternoon. Several interesting out-door games were indulged in before the picnic supper was served at five-thirty, p. m. Both students and faculty members who were present seemed to enjoy thoroughly the repast, which included the usual picnic "goodies." Time passed all too quickly, and the drive home through the cool night air ended the delightful June Senior picnic.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

On the evening of June 4th, the Junior II class entertained the Senior II class with a beautiful banquet in the High School gymnasium, which was decorated to represent a Japanese garden by moonlight. From the balcony were suspended colorful Japanese lanterns. Irises were used for centerpieces on the small tables at which the guests were seated. The orchestra was seated behind a sparkling fountain.

A delicious menu—more American than Japanese—was served by kimona-garbed Sophomores. The program carried out the oriental note, but Americanism was conspicuous in the dance which followed the banquet.

COLOR DAY

On April fourth the June graduating class observed their color day, a semi-annual event in the school. The day began with an assembly program presented to the school by the seniors. The program was divided into two parts, the first of which consisted of musical selections given by members of the Senior II class. The second part was presented by a group of Tommy Cox's dancers.

The stage was decorated with the class colors, which were worn during the day by the Senior II's. Our flag flying before the school, proclaimed the colors of the June graduating class of 1934 to be black, cerise, and silver.

CLASS SONG

As we reflect on our memories dear,
And when we think of our senior year
We'll always live the rules of our dear school
As we're drifting on.
To your memory we'll be true
After we have gone;
We will always think of you
Singing your dear songs,
But now we must say good-by to you
And as we leave our dear school
We will take our places in the world
Where ever duty rules.

Words and music by Thurl Nelson.

CLASS HISTORY

The curtain rose on the first act of our drama of high school life. As the Class of '34, we entered P. H. S. as sophomores, amid the usual excitement and glamour of at last becoming a part of that great institution and obtaining a little notice. Our part as sophomores was merely to work backstage, and although we received little acclaim, being seldom before the footlights, with a curtain call almost unknown to us, it was thrilling just to be in such an environment, to know that we were playing a bit and would step into more important characterizations.

The second act began, and as Juniors we were just beginning to be noticed in the limelight. As upperclassmen, we were expected to adopt a more important role and fill it with all the ingenuity and vigor characteristic of such players. The first step was the organization of committees for the Junior-Senior Banquet which we gave in honor of the Class of '33. Each committee assumed certain duties and together we formed the plan of entertaining our guests on a ship. The setting provided a background for a realistic scene with life preservers and the ship's flag hanging aloft. Our role as hosts and hostesses was brought to a successful close—by the presentation of the Blennerhassett Islanders, who played a dance program for all guests at the banquet.

As Juniors we had earnestly understudied every action of the experienced Seniors, and were thus ready to step forward to the front of the stage as Seniors. Then we played the leading role in our great drama of high school life. Before we could attempt to carry the show further, the cast had to be fully organized and capable directors found. With Miss Bonnie Kerr as sponsor, and William Turley filling the role of President, our final act began. A tea-dance was the first production. Being the first of its kind to be presented, it was especially successful and found credit in the eyes of our critics, thus making possible several other dancing entertainments, among them a Senior II Dance, and the tea-dance and banquet given in our honor.

One highly interesting scene of the drama was the play "Girl Shy," which included a superb cast and proved a source of great entertainment.

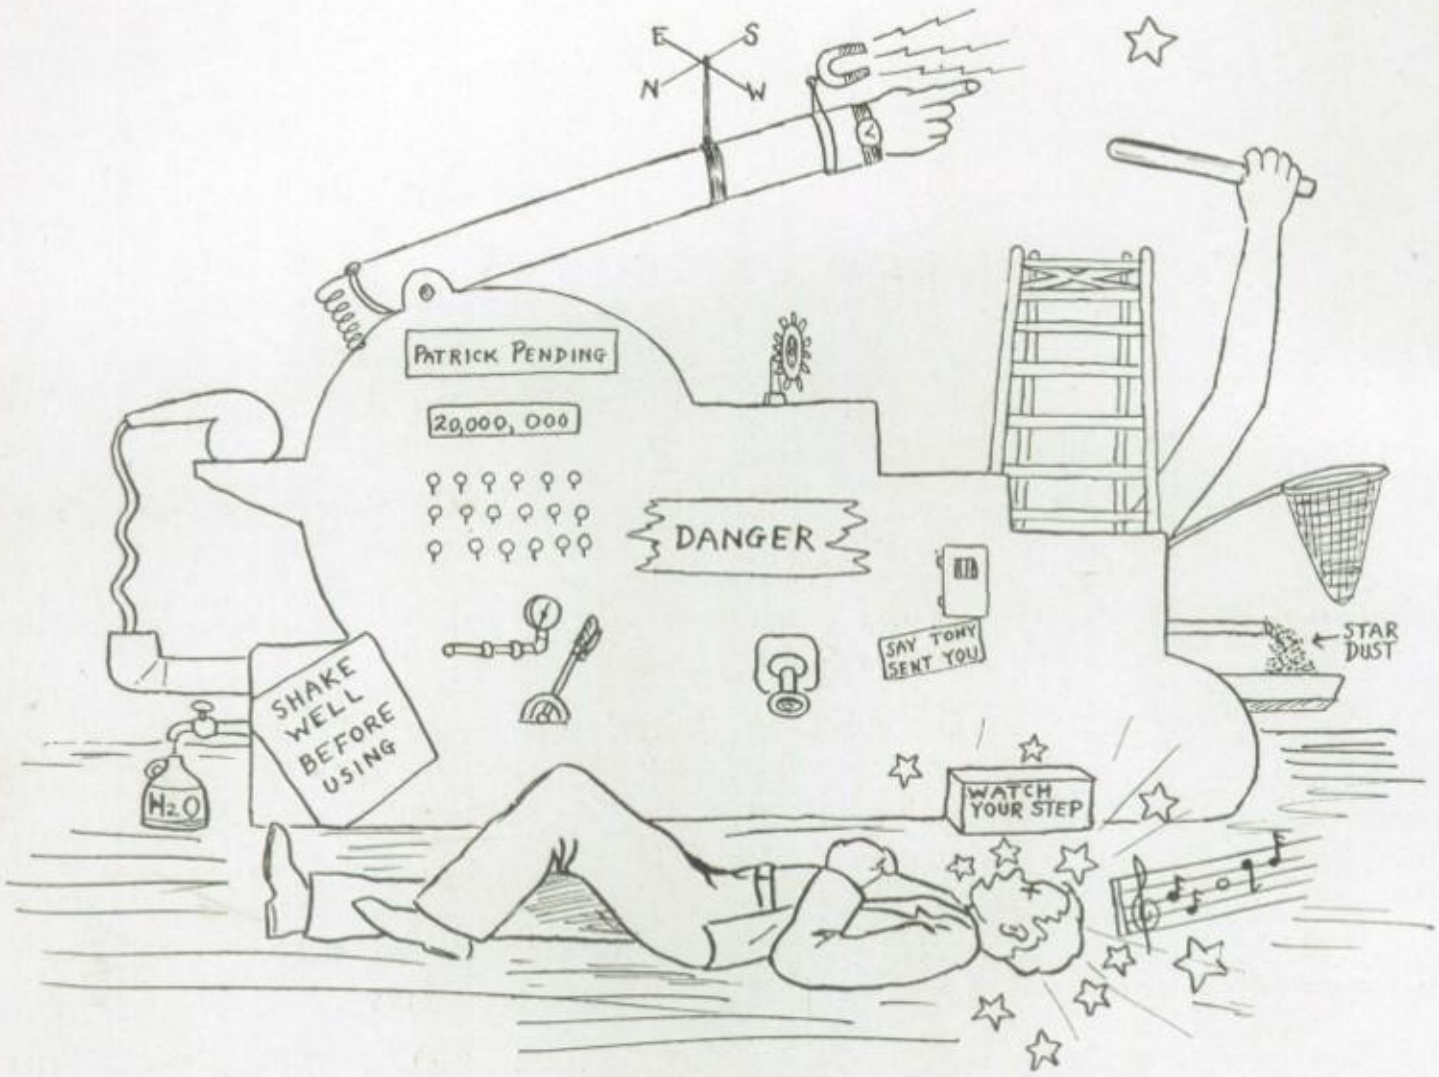
Thus the players traveled rapidly toward their goal, guided by their motto, "Upward and Onward," and finding real joy in bringing their drama to a close. With the sermon and commencement came the close of those years spent in high school. We were not sorry to complete our work, but will remember it all with fond recollections.

The curtain falls! The last act has ended, and the players turn to say "au revoir" to their drama. It is not easy to bid farewell to fellow-players who so diligently assisted in our attempts to reach fame.

Every player began as an "extra;" some were "finds" and became the leading characters, but each performed such a splendid role that our production was successful.

So with all fidelity and vitality characteristic of the Class of 1934, let each player "Act well his part, there all the honor lies." With jubilant voices, let us cry, "On with the show!"

DOROTHY GRANT.



CLASS PROPHECY

Above, you see the wonderful invention of Professor Goofery A. (Diz) Peachfuz, DDI, CWA, and NRA. The Prof. sat up many nights after his second cup of stale coffee and as he was counting sheep he fell upon this invention. The machine is for counting stars. The magnet attracts the stars and as they jump over the fence the night stick hits them; the finger counts them as they fall, and they are then ground to star dust.

The Professor became attracted by the magnet and as a result you see him counting the stars.

The first star is William (Bill) Turley. He is coaching the Girls' American Basketball Team. We knew him as the Trinity Ace.

And Dick Smith is still asking "Tuz" and "Bob" whom he can go out with.

Big Ed McDonough is now the coach of the noted Notre Dame Football Team. (He blows the footballs up). No, girls, he isn't married yet.

Carlyle Koon is now signed up to croon old Colored Spirituals down at the Roseland.

CLASS PROPHECY

Herb Sammons is now enforcing the Parkersburg Traffic Regulations. You know Herb never forgets.

George Dickson is now working for the Post Office. (He must have gotten a pull).

Bill Schneider is now giving dancing lessons to the Sophomore class so they can attend dances when they are Seniors.

Robert Ebert is now going steady with Wilma Rose.

Robert Yeardley is teaching Chemistry now in the old institution.

Phil Deem is the City's most prominent Undertaker.

We are told that Marjorie Meed is still talking in her sleep. (An accomplishment for which she was noted in her high school days).

Moran is now Postmaster General at Washington. How did you do it, Bill?

Pat McCarthy is now band master of our fair band. I'll bet he keeps plenty of people awake!

Bill Kramer spent so much time in Marietta that his Dad decided to let him go into the Drug Store Business up there.

Ernie McGinnis finally succeeded in getting Frances Batten to like him just a little. (He sure waited long enough).

Bill Ash is now teaching American Problems and all the girls get S. (Eat your Spinach, Bill!)

Lucian Mahanna is tap dancing on Dils Bros. Radio Hour.

Phyllis Schmidt is writing the society for the "Williamstown Voice" and Frances is the power behind the throne.

William Lockney is teaching the girls fancy dancing.

Claudalee Newlon is now in charge of the office of the High School.

Jeannette Bartels is replacing Joan Crawford in Gable's new picture.

CLASS PROPHECY

Dorcas Edmondson is helping Aimee Semple McPherson in her Sunday Radio Talk.

Joanne Withee and Ruth Griffith are hostesses at the "Ritz" in Pennsboro. Ruth tickles the ivories and Joanne dances.

Wilma Auberle is now the President of the "Exquisite Fur Co."

Mary E. Simpson is now employed by the "Dog Hill News." She is in charge of the Snap Shot Department.

Mary C. Davis is now the Fashion Queen of Hollywood.

George Townshend is in charge of the Hill Billy Band and will play for the January class dance.

Oran Ogdin is now mayor of St. Marys and Toddy (Jennings) is Mayoress.

Kelly is now a prominent General Store Owner out at Cairo, and does he like Dollies!

Joe Deem is the new Principal of the school—he should know it well by now.

Carl Wetzel is now playing at the Smoot in "Hold Your Man."

Andy Grimm is now Truant Officer and gets in free to all the shows.

Jerry Ward is singing "Torch" songs down at the Coliseum.

Breckenridge is now a Dodge Salesman and making good.

Mac Wieder is now a prominent minister of our fair city.

Ellen McAtee is waitress in Johnson's.

Well, folks, the Professor has run out of star dust, and now we must awaken him. If you desire an additional copy of this to burn, you may have one by tearing the top from the Hotel building and mailing it with return postage to Miss Kerr.

Signed, sealed, and dated this 1st day of June.

TIM GRIFFIN

CLASS WILL

Setting: Bridge of life with old man Experience as the toll collector.

It is necessary to offer one's best in order to continue across the well-known bridge. This group of young men and women possessed of such remarkable generosity, freedom of speech, and other valuable virtues, are about to make their sacrifices in order to assist the future candidates of the Senior II class who may not be so fortunate as to call such extraordinary endowments their own.

"Ho, hum," yawns the old toll collector, with a stretch of his weary limbs, "I guess this job will never end. Here comes the class of '34 already."

"I have a contribution for the good of the cause, old man," exclaims William Turley, with that Little Lord Fauntleroy look in his eye.

"What's that, young man, may I ask?"

"I offer the ability of our class to break up any meeting, regardless of the nature."

"That's an old school tradition, William, and I'll just pass it on to the class of '35."

Posey Steele: "I will my 'hold him tight' ability to Julia Ford."

Jack McCarthy: "I will let someone else go with Helen when I am gone."

Eleanor McCluer: "I will my 'come hither, Marietta Boy' to any lonely Parkersburg girl."

Bill Schneider: "I leave my nose to Jimmy Lehmann and David Hagen." We know they can hold it down, Bill.

"Serious" Meed: "I leave my serious-mindedness to my little sister Regina."

Lu Mahanna: "Fanny Deem can take my place in writing the next poem."

"Beauty" Davis: "I leave my cunning ways and pretty smile, showing my teeth, to Bud Rittenhouse."

Joanne Withee: "I will my original spring dancing to Nell Jean Heermans."

CLASS WILL

Carl Wetzel: "I leave my power with the weaker sex to Ron Wildt and Bill Gray." Hotcha!

Catherine Magez: "I leave my ability to get gossip to Peggy Lane."

Mary Elizabeth Simpson: "I leave my music inspirations and 'whatsat' to Mary Jane Bell."

George Gilfillan: "Down deep in my heart I feel that Piercy could use my speed in the 100 yard dash better than I."

Ruth Griffith: "I will my undying love to Helen Oesterle."

Joe Deem: "You will find my name written on every desk in this school."

Geraldine Ward: "I am willing to leave my voice to Jimmie Lehmann, not that he can use it."

Bonnie Applegate: "I will my nonchalant way with boys to Peggy Romine."

Robert Ebert and George Dickson: (In unison) "We leave our artistic abilities to two little girls in the Junior II class."

Helen Ruth Cain: "I leave my 'petite' ways to Joe Beckwith."

Dick Samuels: "I'm tired of carrying violin cases."

Jeanette Bartels: "I leave my popularity with lower classmen to someone who can use it."

Catherine Davis: "I will my ever 'undying' love to Buck Jones."

At this point one may pause long enough to heed the snoring of the old man, who, needless to say, has passed to the world of dreams, due to the somnific effects of our masterpiece. We request, therefore, that our patient reader partake of this pattern when listening to a lecture, sleeping on a pine bed, or in other situations in which he helplessly finds himself.

ROBERT YEARDLEY
WILMA AUBERLE

CLASS JEST

Friends that we love so well, lend your ears to this oration offered to you by the gods of Jest, so that you may profit by the wrong doings of others.

By the time that the victims of this work of art are bemoaning their fate to themselves, your humble servants will be somewhere in the vicinity of the Equator with ears burning, not from the intense heat of that tropical zone, but from the threats and promises of those involved in this great oration.

Did you know that the Withees had taken out life insurance on Joanne? I guess it is because of foggy weather.

We have heard that a good place to meet a part of the state militia is out at Kathleen Hall's. However, be careful of what you say and do, because Roby is strong as well as handsome. Isn't he, Kathleen?

We wonder why Dick Smith had to learn to dance behind the bicycle shed during intermission of the Class Dance? We always thought that he could dance.

A childhood romance is blossoming forth again in the case of Bill Schneider and Geraldine Ward.

That dashing young Romeo, Timothy C. Griffin, has gone in all directions. First, north to Toledo; then, east to Cairo; then, south to Beckley. "Go West, my boy, go West."

William Joseph Bernard Moran, Jr., knows something of Cairo, too. We wonder if she is any relation to Postmaster General Jim Farley?

Who is the gay young fellow who is seen at a Murdoch Avenue home quite frequently? He seems to like to go places where he can get cornbread. Yes, you have guessed it! It is Eddie McDonough. That's why he used to go to Ritchie County—just to get buttermilk and cornbread.

It seems that Ritchie County is more important than Wood to the boys of this high school. Dolly Aimic has captured one of our greatest orators, Clyde Edwin Kelly.

Did you know that Ken Cooper refused to take any girl to the Senior Dance that he had ever taken any place else before?? He has always denied the fact that he is a "ladies' man," but it rather looks as though he is beginning to believe it himself.

Carl Wetzel and Oran Ogdin have formed a new club for the school. They have named it "Women Haters." Isn't it surprising that those two would do that? Has Toddy jilted both of them?

Is there any special reason why Emerson Nelson should keep Lorene Boso's coat in his locker? Is it because he can't bear to have her away from him long enough to let her go to her own locker?

CLASS JEST

Anyone who wishes to see Bob Ebert in a romantic mood can usually find him pounding the pavements on Sixteenth along about twilight 'most every Friday and Saturday.

Transportation in a DeSoto sedan is furnished Franklin Reece on every occasion. If you don't believe us, ask the owner of aforesaid car.

It appears that Grace McCoy has removed to Reno to take legal action against the much-talked-about "Tombstone" Givens.

Raymond Breckenridge confided in me that a thing of beauty often tends to keep a fellow broke.——Well, maybe it is a good thing that B. J. lives in Fairmont.

We had come to the conclusion that it was usually the Senior who broke the heart of the underclassman, but what about Wilma Rose?—Harry must have had a powerful line.

It appears that Wilma Auberle has a new boy friend. She got rid of the old one and captured the new one in less than one week. She's a fast worker, isn't she, "Pete"?

Just a word from Joe "Dummy." "I yam agettin' out on account of they ain't no more subjects fer me ta flunk.—That's all I gotta say!"

A word from Phil, who says this: "I have been in school (P. H. S.) for 27 years, and I hate to leave. Let me tell you young fellows that your high school days are the happiest."

This choice morsel is one that will open the eyes of many. We all thought that Dot Tigner preferred the older fellows, but lo and behold she has surprised us by dating a senior, and he's none other than our Honored Class President.

Here are a few words as overheard by our Star reporter as he sauntered near Mildred Morrison and Junior Hoblitzell.

Junior speaking: "Do you think we could live on my fortune, dear? Of course you know that my mind is my fortune."

Mildred: "Well, after all, Junie dear, it isn't any sin to be poverty stricken."

And so, like all other things of beauty, this work which represents four years of hard labor (we might even say slavery) must be closed.

As I lay down my pen, my heart is heavy. A tear from my colleague's eye drops on the paper and smears the ink. With the loud splash of the tear coming in contact with the paper, I am brought from deep meditation, and on the spur of the moment will add the final Amen to this writing which is so sacred to us.

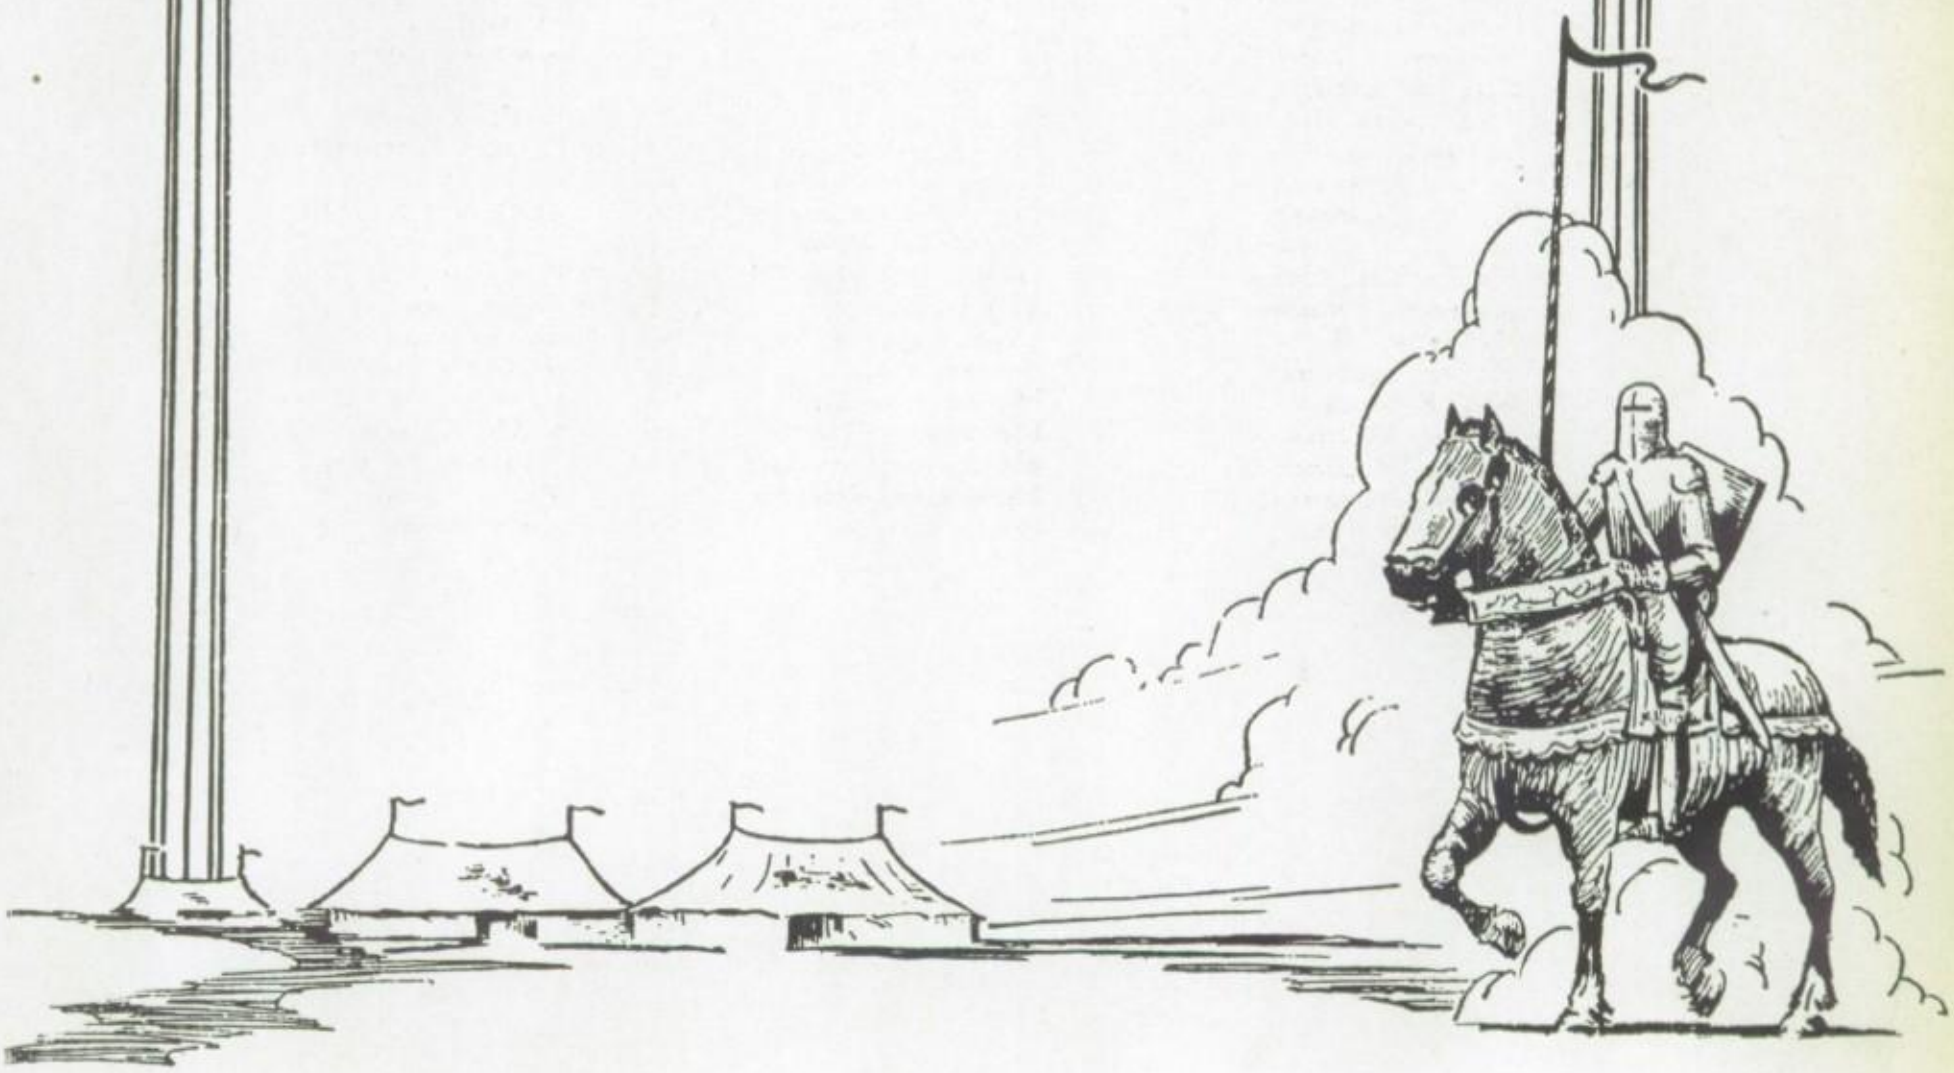
Activities



THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, composed of members elected from each Home Room, is an executive group which acts in cooperation with the school administration in the upholding of the high ideals of the school.

One of the greatest activities ever undertaken by a Parkersburg High Student Council was begun this year. It involves the calling of a conference, which is to be held annually in Parkersburg, for the purpose of discussing certain school problems which directly affect the students. Earlier in the year the Council sent letters to the principals of every high school in the State, urging them to send representatives to a conference in Parkersburg. This conference was held, as planned, and the supporters of the conference see great possibilities for a closer relationship between high school students in the State.

The officers for the year were as follows:

President ..... Lelia Brown
Vice President ..... Mary C. Jennings
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Henry Harkins

HI-Y

The club had for its theme the first semester, local government, and the second semester, travel.

The club in the course of the year has had some very interesting speakers, including Mayor Murdoch, Dr. Aspinall of W. V. U., and Bruce Hoff.

The club has had two dances, one in the Chancellor Hotel and the other in the High School gym, both of which were great successes.

During the year the club held a few open discussions and also some Bible discussions.

THE BIG RED BAND

The Parkersburg High School Band, after another successful year of marching and playing, still has the reputation of being the best high school band in the state.

In 1932 the Big Red Band won the right to compete in the National Band Contest in Chicago in 1933. The band under the supervision of Mr. George Dietz made the trip to Chicago in June, and showed up exceptionally well against leading high school bands of the nation. They were fortunate to bring back with them several trophies, which are proudly displayed in the High School Trophy case.

The Band was also out to support every home football game, and made the trip to Huntington.

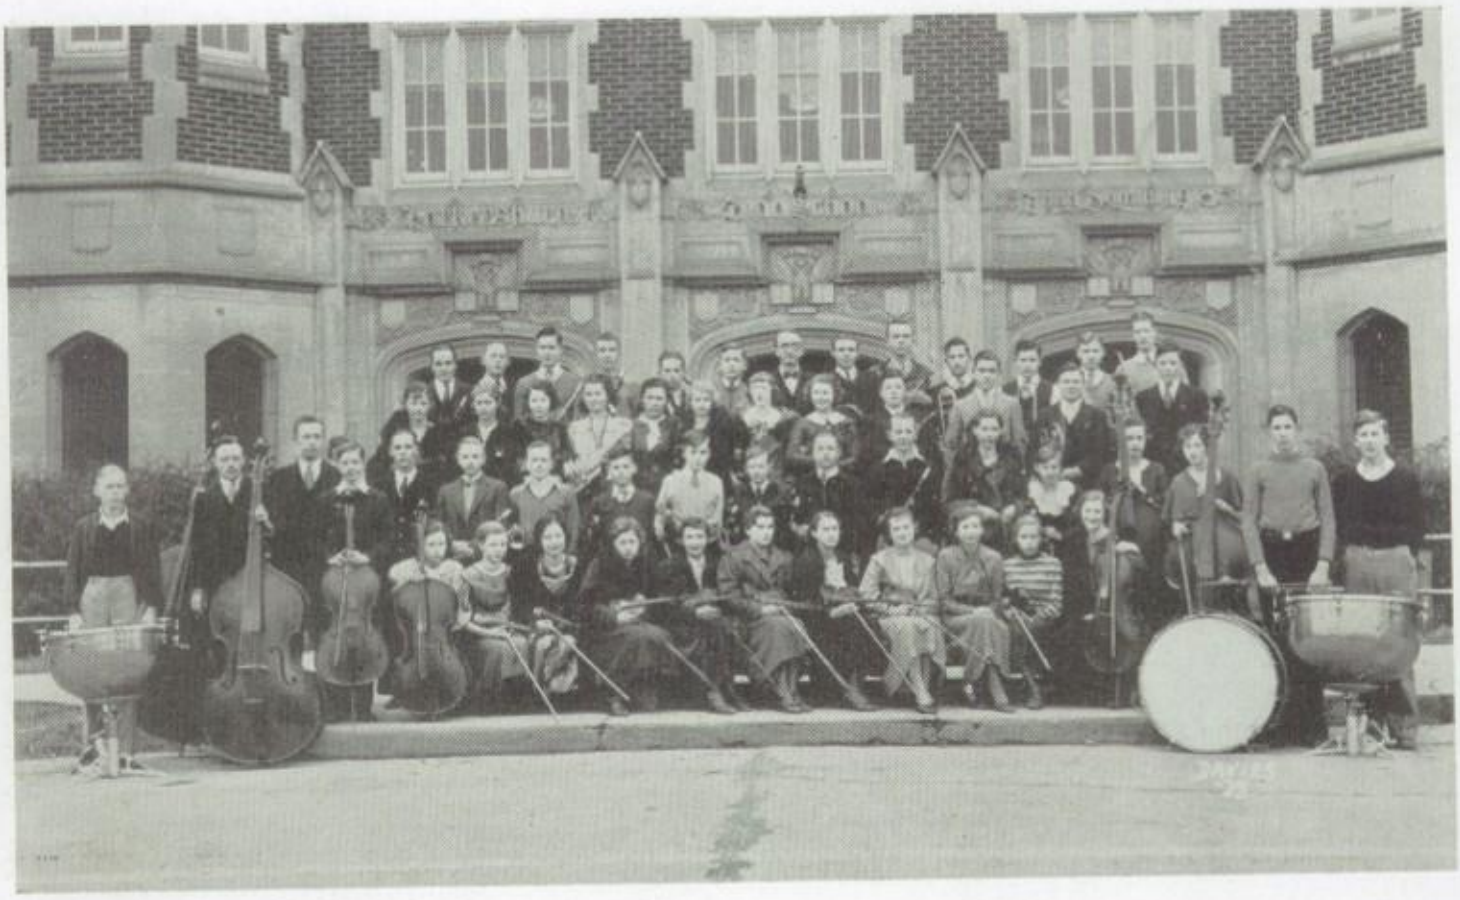
THE HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

Each year finds our High School Orchestra losing many members, due to graduation, but each semester we notice new players to make up the instrumentation of the orchestra.

The orchestra plays for most of the assemblies and assists in all the indoor activities of the various clubs presenting programs in the auditorium.

Commencement week would not be complete without the High School Orchestra's assistance at the Class Play, the Sermon, and the Graduation exercises. Dr. Ben G. Graham, superintendent of the Pittsburgh Schools, highly complimented the orchestra and Mr. Swales, the director, for the interpretation of "The Overture of Overtures" by Pannella. Dr. Graham stated that it is one of the best high school orchestras he has ever heard.

Emblems are given for two years' service, and those who take part in the State High School Orchestra are given pins, which are the pride of all who possess them.



THE LITTLE SYMPHONY

The Little Symphony Orchestra is composed of the picked players of orchestral instruments in the Parkersburg High School and is under the direction of Mr. John R. Swales. The membership is limited to 40, and only selected players are admitted. They give their own assemblies, which are always looked forward to by the student body.

Several members have received partial scholarships, due mainly to the fine work of the individuals. George Townshend and Charles Mitchell, members of the Little Symphony, each received from Wesleyan College a two hundred dollar scholarship for the outstanding work done in the 1933 State Orchestra Contest at Wheeling, W. Va.

MARCATO GLEE CLUB

The Marcato Glee Club, under the capable direction of Miss Marie Boette, has been organized since 1926 and each year has shown marked improvement. This year's club, with a membership of 102 girls, has proved to be outstanding over that of previous years. Especially was this shown by the unique assembly program consisting of an original musical sketch, arranged by Lucille Joerger and Mary Elizabeth Simpson, presented in November. The club also assisted in the Christmas program and festival held in May. All their public appearances were well received by the student body and general public.

Eleven members of the club took part in the All-State Chorus held in Wheeling, in October. This year Miss Boette directed the chorus.

The club is a member of the State Federation of Music Clubs and participated in the Contest held at Morgantown in April.

The officers for the first semester were:

President ..... Lucille Joerger
Vice President ..... Marie Hitt
Secretary ..... Emily Miller
Treasurer ..... Mary E. Simpson
Librarian ..... Maxine McCarty
Assistant Librarian ..... Marjorie Meed

The following officers were elected in February due to the graduation of Senior II officers:

President ..... Geraldine Ward
Vice President ..... Eleanor Smith

THE MASQUERS

The Masquers, Senior High Dramatic Club of Parkersburg High School, is sponsored this year by Mrs. Gwendolyn Matheny Gillham. The club has given two plays this semester in the school assembly, entitled "Good Medicine," and "Thanks for Health." During the second semester the club presented several one-act plays.

The members are divided into groups of five or six students with a chairman at the head of each division. Every other week one group entertains the club and in this manner the students earn their credits.

The officers for the two semesters are as follows:

	First Semester	Second Semester
President	Conard Jones	Frances Batten
Vice President	Frances Batten	Mary Catherine Jennings
Secy.-Treas.	Mary Ellen Jones	Carl Wetzel

The Senior members are as follows:

THE HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club was first organized in January, 1933, with Miss Hazel McHenry of the Household Arts Department as sponsor. This year the club has seventy members and two sponsors, Misses Hazel McHenry and Mariam Queen.

The club was admitted to membership in the West Virginia State Home Economics Association and in the American Home Economics Association.

Social functions are frequently held in the Home Economics Apartment, which add to the enjoyment of the club members.

The Senior members are:

Lillian Kelley
Wilhelmina Samuels
Alberta Affolter
Margaret Franklin
Carmel Toomey
Thelma Toomey
Elizabeth Vogel
Doris Wendelken
Genevieve Overton
Virginia Hannan
Delores Pilcher
Roberta Mendenhall

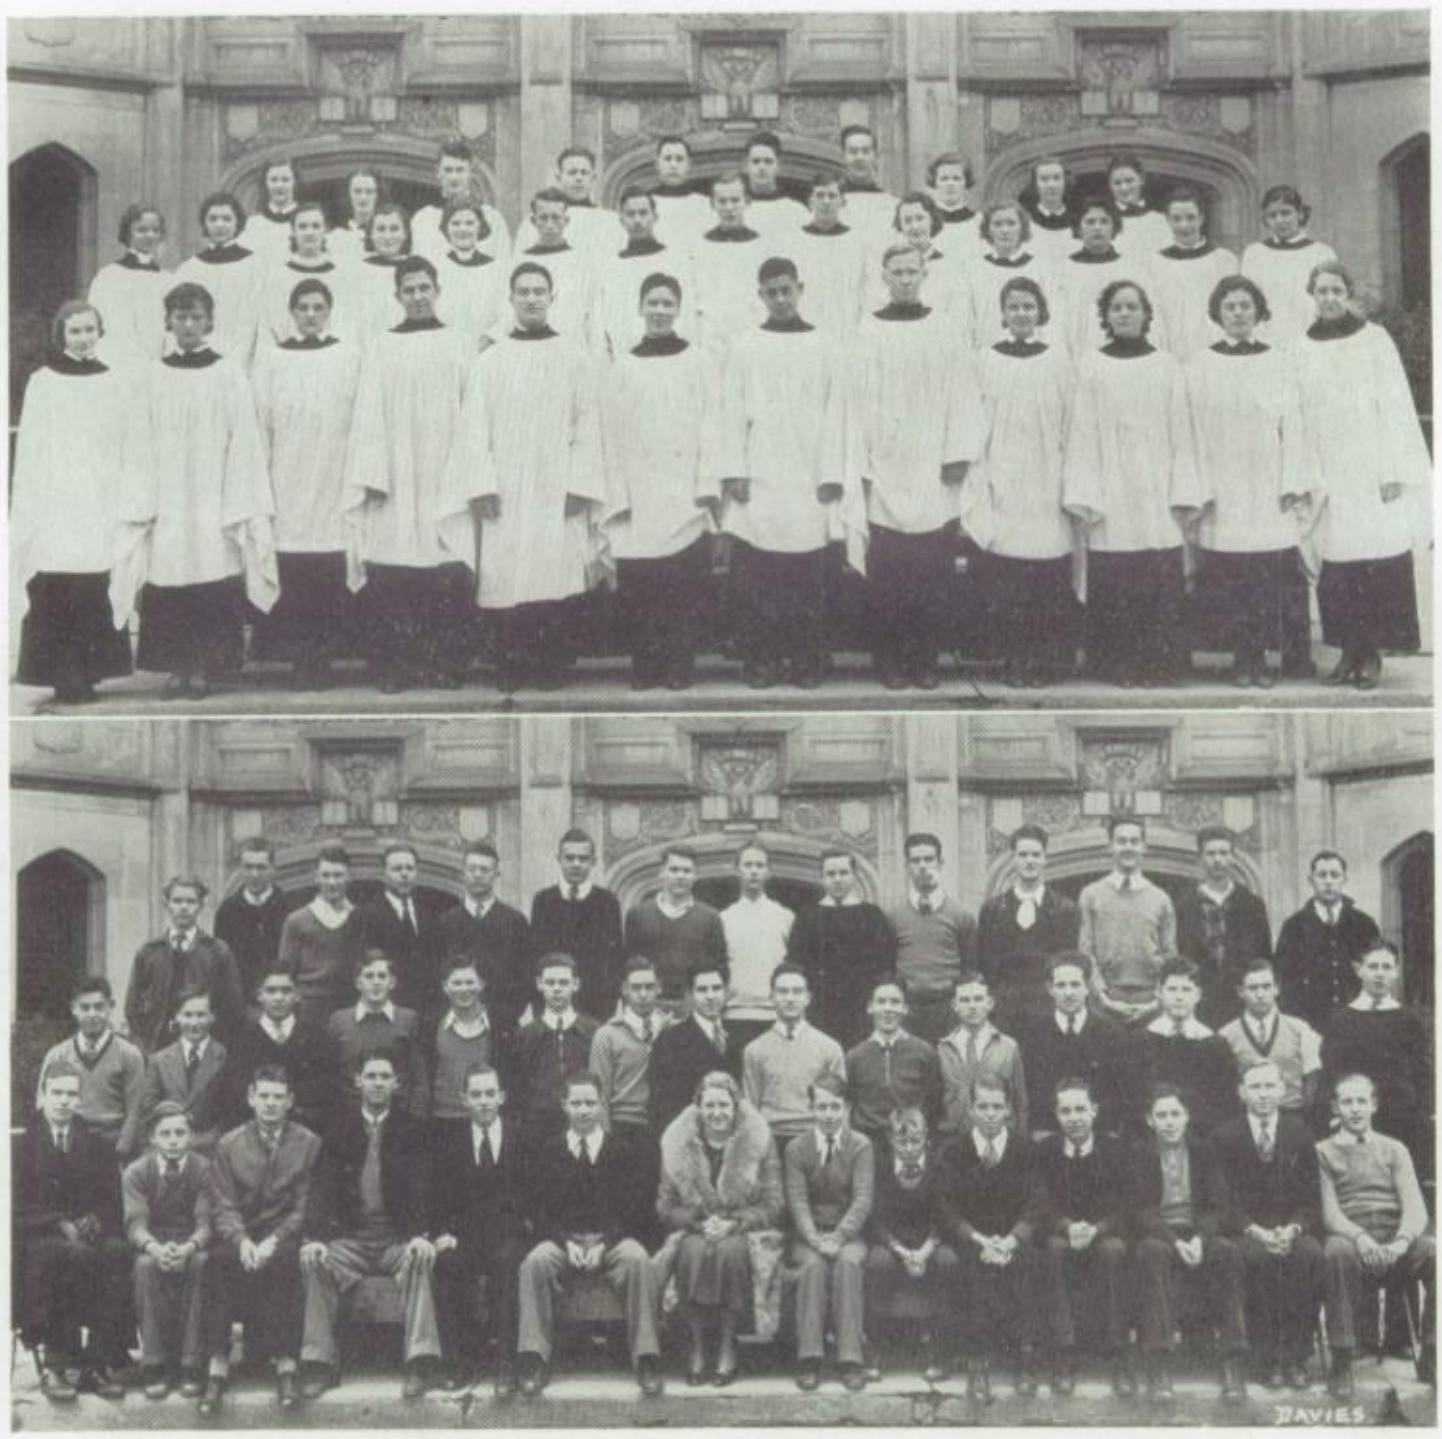
BOYS' VOCATION CLUB

This organization is composed of boys who are interested in learning the advantages and disadvantages of the various professions that are found in the business world today. Through the assistance of Mr. Kenneth Christy, sponsor, the members arrange and carry out their own programs with the aid of an appointed committee of five. Their speakers were: L. S. Michael, assistant principal; Judge F. P. Moats; Jay Sodowsky, aviator; Reverend Edwin Saylor; and J. H. McKay, banker. The group of approximately twenty boys have found the work of great value to them, and there will be a greater use for it after graduation. Wade Trout acted as President, and Carl Laughlin served as Secretary and Treasurer.

The Senior members are as follows:

Paul Sams
Lawrence Kellar
Wade Trout
Albert Cooper
Ralph Smith



A CAPPELLA CHOIR

The A Cappella Choir is composed of thirty-nine members, who are students capable of presenting the more advanced and difficult music. They must possess well-matured voices and be qualified both vocally and in the fundamentals of music. The term "A Cappella" means choral music without an accompaniment. The voices must take the parts of the instruments; so most of the music is in six and eight parts.

During the year the choir gave several public performances, including sacred concerts, Christmas program at the Rotary Club, programs at the various schools, and a presentation at Marietta College in January. In addition, the choir furnished music at the Christmas and Easter assemblies and also at the Senior Class sermons.

THE VIVACE GLEE CLUB

The Vivace Glee Club is for boys only and has a membership of over sixty. They are also under the direction of Miss Marie Boette.

The club took part in both the Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies, and also in the musical production "Kampus Yumor," which was well received by the students.

Senior members are:

THE AMERICAN HISTORY CLUB

This club, under the sponsorship of Miss Effie May Johnson, again had a most interesting and entertaining year. The officers elected for the year were:

President ..... Helen Morris
Vice President ..... Herbert Ladeaux
Secretary ..... La Vera Wise

Three groups were organized among the twenty members. These groups rotate in giving the program at the regular Thursday morning meeting. Two of the groups chose to give a series of historic plays while the third gave programs regarding all kinds of transportation. A great many of the programs have been well performed and well received by the club members. Each year Miss Johnson takes the club on a trip to some near-by point of historical interest. A tour is usually conducted to the famous museum of Marietta College, considered as the finest of its kind in this part of the country.

PANORAMA

The Panorama group, sponsored by Miss Nellie Hays Taylor, aims to promote interest in the current events of the world. The many programs given during the year were as enjoyable as they were instructive.

The officers of this organization are Kathryn Gibson, President; Louise O'Donnell, Secretary.

The capable Program Committee includes the following: Virginia Hawkins, Beatrice Bennett, Clara Drake, Bruce Mitchell.

The Senior members are: Carroll Stephens, Kathryn Gibson, Pearle Westfall, Ray Life.

LIBRARY STUDENT ASSISTANTS

In spite of the many conveniences afforded by our very modern library, it is necessary that Miss Ida Peters have several assistants in order that the library may be well conducted for the advantage of the students. The members of this well organized group assist in checking books in and out, mending them, arranging newspapers and magazines, and selecting books for book reports. The following Seniors have held these very responsible positions during the last two semesters: Kathryn Gibson, Helen Kincheloe, Irene Porter, Virginia Reeder, Dolores Bee, Virginia Amos, Ardeth Howard.

ENTRE NOUS

The Entre Nous Book Club is for girls, under the sponsorship of Miss Ida Peters, librarian, and is devoted to the informal study of the various phases of literature.

Memberhip is limited to thirty girls, who are selected on a scholarship basis, and by popular vote of the club.

Besides talking of books and authors, Entre Nous has two projects which it sponsors annually, namely the editing of an annotated book list, and putting on a Book Week assembly program.

THE FOUR-H CLUB

The Central 4-H Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Baker and Miss Crooks, was organized for rural boys and girls in high school. In order to be a member of this club, one must be between the ages of ten and twenty-one, and he must carry a project of home economics, agriculture, or nature study. He must have a home club which he may attend during vacation months. If a former member, he must have completed one year of work. The object of the 4-H Club is to develop the head, hand, heart, and health. The 4-H symbol is the four leaf clover.

ETIQUETTE CLUB

The Etiquette Club was organized for the first time this year with Miss Townsend as sponsor. The club meetings were held every Thursday morning during home room period. Manners of everyday life formed the theme of the majority of the discussions. The thirty-five members of this organization have found it helpful, and they hope those joining it later will find it equally so.

Officers : Kathryn Tyson, President; Mary Louise McHenry, Secretary; Social Committee, Louise Renner, Peggy Romine, Betty Stuart.

THE ASTRONOMY CLUB

This year the Astronomy Club, under the efficient direction of Mr. A. C. Taylor, studied the earth, the moon, the sun, the planets, numerous constellations and individual stars, asteroids, meteors, comets, nebulae, the ecliptic, the zodiac, the telescope, the spectroscope and many other things equally as interesting to star-minded people.

Professor Sandt, of Marietta College, presented two illustrated lectures on "The Moon," and two on "The Sun."

The club, accompanied by the Greek Club, visited Marietta College on December 8, 1933, and enjoyed the talks given by Professor Sandt at the observatory as well as many other unusual opportunities for interesting instruction.

The officers for the two semesters are as follows:

	1st Semester	2nd Semester
President	Mac Wieder	Mac Weider
Vice President	Betty Hayman	Helen Oesterle
Secretary	Jeanette Bartels	Charles McGinnis
Treasurer	Howard McGinnis	Peggy Romine
Reporter	Martha Hyre	Plummer Harvey

GREEK CLUB

The Greek Club, whose sponsor is Mr. A. C. Taylor, is one of the new clubs to be organized this year. The object of the club is to make a study of Greek Literature. Membership is limited to those students who have had either Cicero, Caesar, or Virgil.

Several interesting speakers spoke to the club during the year. The club also enjoyed a trip to Marietta College with the Astronomy and Latin Clubs. Professor Christie of Marietta College gave a very interesting lecture there on Greek Art and Greek Architecture.

THE DEBATING TEAM

The question debated by the high school debating team this year was: "Resolved, that the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio control and operation." Under the direction of Mrs. Gillham the team competed in ten interscholastic debates. The affirmative team, composed of Rector Britton, Clyde Kelly, Robert Ebert, Vivian Stukey, and Timmy Griffin, won only one of its five debates, being defeated by Beckley, Harrisville, Marietta, and Charleston, and winning a decision from St. Marys. The negative team, composed of Frances Batten, Edward McDonough, Bill Moran, Bill Leonhart, and Betty Arnold, attained a higher degree of success, however. They were defeated by St. Marys and Charleston, but won decisions over Beckley and Harrisville. The season was completed with a non-decision debate with Marietta where the new form of debating, the Oregon style, was used.

GIRLS' VOCATION CLUB

This organization, under the direction of Miss Daisy Waller, lives up to its name in making a thorough study of vocations open to girls. Each girl makes a report on some vocation of her own choosing. The club meets once a week during the Home Room period, and at each meeting speakers representing different vocations address the club.

The Senior members are: Elizabeth Barrett, Virginia Lawson, Juanita Bennett, Alice Eaton, Ruby Leasure, Marian Bartlett.

S. P. Q. R. CLUB

The Latin Club, under the direction of Miss Hayman, was organized last fall with the same plan as has been used in the past. John Burdette and Eleanor Johnston held the honorable positions of Consuls; Margaret Brown, that of Praetor, and Martha Wieder, that of Censor.

A series of interesting programs presented three plays, several puppet shows, a study of the Forum and Roman costumes, and an instructive lecture by Professor Christie of Marietta College. A trip to Marietta proved an interesting climax to a very successful year.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club under the direction of Mr. S. G. Steele was first organized in October, 1932. Its object is to aid social, economic, and vocational growth along commercial lines. The program consists of instructive talks by representative business men, and commercial programs by the club. To the club members the weekly meetings have proved especially interesting this year.

Following are the Senior members: Richard Samuels, William Grubbs, Jimmie Atkins, Ruth Piersol, Opal Carder, Ernestine Sharps, Sara Jane McNerney, Mary Virginia McFadden, Ellen Prince, Genevieve Snyder, Mildred Mayhall, Agnes Ireland, James Goosman, Joe Deem, Lloyd Pratt, Carl McKibben.

TRAVEL CLUB

The Travel Club was organized several years ago for the purpose of giving those students who are interested in travel the chance to hear about the foreign countries. Miss Boggs is the sponsor, and at each meeting she has a guest speaker who talks on his or her experiences while traveling.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls' Athletic Association of Parkersburg High School is composed of those girls who have received their athletic award, a red letter, "P." To receive this award the girl must earn three hundred points by participating in the tournaments, by skill in sports, by hiking, and by showing good sportsmanship. For each additional three hundred points a star is added to the award.

The Senior members are: Agnes Ireland, Ardeth Howard, Ester Eads, Kathleen Capehart, Blanche Newlon, Helen Parr, Ellen McAtee, Lucille Joeger, Milded Morrison, Margaret Franklin, Lorene Boso, Eleanor Ross, Julia Gorman, Jane Gocke, Sara Deem, Edith Booth, Betty Hayman, Kathryn Tyson, Lucille Matheny.

"JOBYNA STEPS OUT"

The January class of '34 presented on Thursday evening, January 18th, before one of the largest audiences ever assembled for a Senior play, the delightful comedy, "Jobyna Steps Out," by Marie Baumer.

The players as they entered were William Fouts and Conard Jones portraying John and Gary Loomis, brothers of Jobyna; Champ Smith as Nick Cromwell, the happy-go-lucky Romeo; Ruth Sims as Gin Bradley, the friend of everybody and a little fixer; Emily Weaver as Lucy Stevens, the trouble-maker; Betty Bauer as the innocent Jobyna, carefully guarded "youngest" of the Loomis family; Foster Shields as Tony Crandall, the villain; Charles Britton and Thelma McDade as Mr. and Mrs. Loomis; and Genevieve Kincade as Della, the Irish maid.

The scenes of the play are laid first in the Loomis living-room, then on the country club porch, and again in the Loomis home. The plot concerns Jobyna's first dance, her mixed-up romance with Nick, the aspirations of troublesome Lucy, the squabblings of John and Gary, and the splendid "fixings" of Gin.

JUNE SENIOR CABINET

Bill Schneider	Chairman Color Committee
Russell Taylor	Chairman Motto Committee
Carl Wetzel	Chairman Play Committee
George Dickson	Vice President
William Turley	President
Lucian Mahanna	Chairman Program Committee
Eleanor Mapes	Chairman Service Committee

SENIOR PLAY

The June Senior play, "Girl Shy," by Katherine Kavanaugh was presented on June 1. The plot concerns the troubles of a young man about to graduate from college. Since he is extremely girl-shy, he seems unable to escape from the matrimonial net spread by his father and his father's choice of a daughter-in-law. The young man's friends help him to find the girl of his choice and win her. All the action takes place in the living room of a bachelor apartment in a college town.

The play was produced under the direction of Mrs. Gillham, and the characters were as follows:

Tom Arsdale, who is girl-shy ..... Carl Wetzel
Oke Stimson, who isn't ..... Bill Moran
Caroline, Tom's Aunt ..... Eleanor McCluer
Anthony Arsdale, Tom's father ..... Bob Ebert
Sylvia Webster, Tom's pet aversion ..... Jeanette Bartels
Dean Marlowe, dean of college ..... Daniel Jones
Peaches Carter, Oke's weakness ..... Helen Parr
Asma, a colored "wash-lady" ..... Dorothy Tigner
Birdie La Verne, a movie aspirant ..... Doris Jones
Babs Sanford, herself ..... Mary C. Jennings
Alfred Tennyson, Murgatoyd, College Poet ..... Kenneth Cooper
Chuck Mayo, Birdie's late affinity ..... Bill Ash

THE ART CLUB

During the first semester the Art Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Patton, did much work in the way of handicraft of leather. In the second semester efforts were confined to sketching in pencil and water color.

First semester officers: Jane Bartlett, President; Margaret Pennybacker, Secretary-Treasurer.

Second semester officers: Jane Bartlett, President; Roberta Mendenhall, Vice President; Herbert Ladeaux, Secretary-Treasurer

Senior members of the club are: Elizabeth Barrett, Roberta Mendenhall, Jane Bartlett, Ada Ruth Burke, Bernadine Ramsey, Doris Wendelken, Alice Eaton, Clarence Compton, and Margaret Rakas.

BOYS' BIOLOGY CLUB

The Boys' Biology Club, under the direction of Mr. Brown, has proved a very successful organization in both intellectual advancement and real pleasure throughout both semesters. A number of interesting projects have been pursued, such as: Use of the microscope, taxidermy, methods of collecting and preserving insects, the technique of preserving biological specimens, identification of trees by collection and observation of leaves, forestry and its vocational possibilities, and fishing as a means of using leisure time to an advantage.

BOYS' BOOK CLUB

Miss Peters, our librarian, is the advisor of this club composed of approximately fifteen boys who are interested in the study of different types of books and magazines. Their meetings, being rather informal, are spent in open discussion or with previously arranged programs. The boys have manifested a great deal of interest in the work because they feel that this knowledge will be useful later on. Throughout the year the club has been a success and will continue to be so because of the untiring efforts of the sponsor and ready cooperation of the group as a whole.

THE SKETCHING CLUB

Under the guidance of Mr. Rose, the Sketching Club has gone through a successful year with eighteen members. The pupose of the club is to study and practice the various types of sketching. The officers are: George D. Gilfillan, III, President; Ann Deem, Vice President, and Walter Sporlein, Secretary-Treasurer. Other members of the club include Louise Bridges, Edwin Campbell, Roy Folden, Anna Lee Frame, Agnes Garvey, Beuna Gault, Ester Goldenberg, George Houck, Walter Hickman, Dorotha Simmons, Wesley Thompson, William Torner, Guyles Wiley, Lillian Rexroad, and Charles Bowman.

SERVICE PAGE

Among the organizations in the school there are several service groups which cooperate with the whole school in general. Their fine services are appreciated throughout the Junior and Senior sections of the school.

The office assistants aid the faculty and the student body in many ways. They take care of all material for checking absence records, operate the school switchboard, assist in circulating bulletins, and help to distribute text-books.

The Football Helpers Squad under the supervision of Mr. Steele and Mr. Linger, was of great service to the school at the football games last fall. They sold and collected tickets and maintained order among the younger and more excitable fans.

The Boys' Patrol is a very active organization under the supervision of Mr. Church. Their duties are chiefly confined to traffic management in the vicinity of the school. The Patrol acts in cooperation with the Parkersburg Automobile Association.

The Monitor System, organized at P. H. S. in 1929, is now governed entirely by the Student Council. Capable and courteous students are given an opportunity to use their study period in the service of the school. These students preserve order in the corridors, check lockers, and direct casual visitors.

GARDEN CLUB

Organized for the first time this semester, the Garden Club, sponsored by Mr. Taylor and supported by the various municipal clubs, proved to be not only a delightful venture but also a very successful one.

Lectures by local garden experts, lectures with lantern slides, and instuctions on types, varieties, and culture of flowers were presented. Individual gardens and a carefully designed club garden provided a practical application of things learned.

Officers: Hans Nestler, President; Grace French, Vice President; Mary C. Jennings, Secretary; Eloise Miller, Treasurer; Roberta Smith, Reporter.

Senior members are: Herold Bennett, Mary Charles Davis, Mary C. Jennings, Bernadine Ramsey, Grace French, Eloise Miller, Herbert Sammons.

JOURNALISM CLUB

During the year the staff of the Journalism Club was as follows:

	First Semester	Second Semester
Editor-in-chief	Bill Moran	Catherine Magez
Associate Editors—Library	Betty Bauer	Arnold Hayes
News	Ed McDonough	Betty Hitt
Society	Ruth Fogle	Norma Harrington
Sports	Phillip Deem, Jane Gocke	Luella Morris
Humor	Tim Griffin	Jimmy Lehmann
Art	Virginia Thompson	Ruth Fogle
Secretary	Kathryn Piersol	Margaret A. Hollobaugh

Faculty Sponsor: Miss Nancy Marsh

MATHEMATICS CLUB

The first mathematics club for several semesters was organized at the beginning of the second semester. The club consists of 30 members most of whom are new students in the field of mathematics. The club is divided into three groups with each group giving a program once in three weeks. During the club period a study is made of the great mathematicians, their lives and contributions to mathematics, types of problems not found in the regular courses, and recreations. Time is also being given to the study of the slide rule.

Officers: Francis Maybury, President; Stanley Beren, Secretary. Sponsor: Mr. Kenneth Christy.

THE WEST CONTEST

The finals of the J. J. and Harriett C. West Contest in public speaking were held in the auditorium on Friday, April 13th. The winners were as follows:

	Senior Division	Junior Division
Debate	Frances Batten	William Leonhart
Extemporaneous Speech	Edward McDonough	Carter Dawson
Oration	Robert Ebert	John Rafferty
Essay	Kathryn Piersol	Dorothy Corbitt

The most outstanding speaker in the Senior Division was Robert Ebert with his original oration entitled, "Democracy at the Crossroads." The debate winner, William Leonhart, was the most outstanding in the Junior Division.

Each winner receives a ten-dollar prize, with an additional ten dollars awarded to the outstanding speaker in each division.

BIG RED COUNCIL

The Big Red Council consists of those athletes who have earned a major monogram in either football, basketball, or track. The Big Red Council meets every Friday morning at nine o'clock, the business of the council being in charge of the president. The council sponsors an All-Sport Banquet which is given annually. They also have charge of an assembly program, and have many social activities.

The officers of the Big Red Council are: Ashford Broadwater, President; Clifford Hoblitzell, Vice President; George Dickson, Secretary-Treasurer; Sponsor: Mr. Steinbicker.

Standing: Coach Steinbicker, Owens, Jackson, Nestler, Dils, McCarty, Pratt, Mackey, Hoblitzell, Breckenridge.

Second Row: Sill, Smith, Boadwater, Jones, Golden, Hamrick, Archer, Wilson, Dickson, Davis, Deem, Gilchrist.

Third Row: Yeardley, Chaddock, Taylor.

TENNIS TEAM

Tennis activities in the school, since first introduced in an organized way nearly ten years ago, have been very successful. Fifty-eight high school matches have thus far been played, in which Parkersburg has been victorious fifty-two times and defeated on only six occasions. Five times in the last six years the tennis team has won the state junior tournament in singles and twice in doubles.

Excellent prospects seem to be apparent for the team this year. Sam Dils, Captain; Turner Stephens, Lawrence Smith, William Turley; Cahill Foley, Manager; Ralph Jones, Jesse Silcott, Woodrow Dils, David Doughty, Hoyt Park, and Harold Everhart constitute the first string, followed by Breckenridge, Schuster, Nestler, Helmick, Poske, Tucker, Patterson, M. Smith, Williams, Sterritt, Wigner, Lewis, Pratt, and Harvey.

Mr. A. C. Taylor is faculty manager of the team.

TRACK TEAM

The Track Team participated in seven meets this year. April 6th Parkersburg met Marietta indoors at Marietta College Field House. The second meet was also held at Marietta Field House and was known as the First Annual Ohio Valley Relays. Moundsville, Marietta and Parkersburg participated, with Moundsville winning. The third meet was a triangular meet between Charleston, Pennsboro, and Parkersburg. Charleston was the winner. On April 28 Marietta returned to Parkersburg for a meet which included Belpre. Parkersburg won by a comfortable margin. May 5th the sectional meet to qualify for the State Meet was held at Clarksburg. Parkersburg beat Washington-Irving, of Clarksburg, and Morgantown for the sectional title. At the State Meet, held May 11th and 12th, Charleston placed first with Moundsville second and Parkersburg third. The most consistent point getters were Hamrick in the Hurdles; Freed in the High Jump; Golden in the middle distances; Goudy, Archer, and Nestler. Freed had an outstanding performance in the High jump, setting a school record and out-distancing a state record with a leap of 6 feet 1½ inches in the Charleston-Pennsboro Triangular Meet.

The Varsity members were:

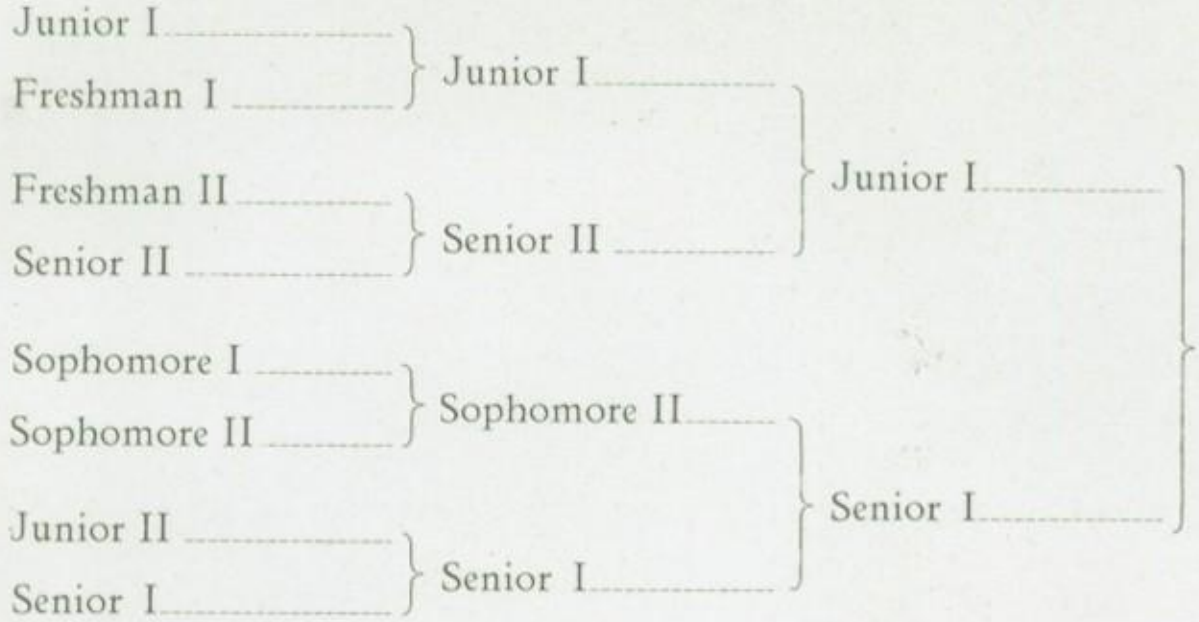
Archer	Hamrick	Sams
Dawson	Hoselton	Sill
Dils	Lockney	Smith
Freed	McCarty	Thompson
Foggin	McDougle	Wetzel
Golden	Nestler	Yeardley
Goudy	Rockenstein	Brown

CROSS COUNTRY RUN

The Cross Country Run, the featured event in all sportdom, is annually held on Thanksgiving Day during the half of the football game. The course is very difficult and much stamina is needed in order to be able to last a full race.

First place honors were carried off by William Lockney. Lyman Pratt received the second place award.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL



GOLF TEAM

Under the efficient coaching of Mr. L. A. Johnson, the following boys formed the golf team of Parkersburg High School: Gordon Beorn, Bryan Rittenhouse, Tommy Graham, Curtis Uhl, Howard Gorman, Lloyd Pratt, Carl Cannon, and Gerald Capehart.

Since this sport was organized only in the fall of 1932, not many games were scheduled, but of the matches held with Wheeling, St. Clairsville, Zanesville, and Fairmont the local team won on three occasions.

SENIOR EPIC

One DAY as I was driving my FRANKLIN KARR down GREENE street in WESTern IRELAND I saw a MILLER working in his mill. He was raising CAIN about a little girl who was picking POSEYs around his door. If he hadn't been a good man, he might have CUSTER; as it was, she escaped. His neighbor the TAYLOR, business being slack, was REEDing his FRENCH REEDER. Next to him a SMITHy bent over his BURNER was busy making a STEELE FRAME for some BARNES which were being built nearby. I stopped to watch him; it was such interesting work I was ROTH to have to go. But as it was an exceedingly warm SUMMERS DAY I decided to eat an APPLE which I found lying on a nearby GATE, and to take a plunge into the nearby BROOK. Although there were several TROUT in it, I enjoyed my swim quite as much as if it had been in a fine POOLE. On the bank was an ASH man who wanted me to go KOON hunting with him. Not being accustomed to a hunter's LIFE, I gave him a pound of fig NEWTONs, bought at a nearby BOOTH, as a recompense. After this I decided to make a visit to the GRIMM old KING, who had once GRANTed me a pardon when I MEEKly appealed to him and confessed having taken a ROSE from his garden. I was admitted by the PORTER who was a very HARD MAN. The old KING and I talked for a long time and ate several perSIMMONS. (I didn't care for them, but I didn't DEEM it WISE to refuse). Before telling him GOODNITE I related the exciting HOLIDAY I had had that day.

JINGLES

Cupid leads many, his aim is true.
He hit Hobby and Mildred, which still didn't do.
He just turned around and took up a dart,
And hit Bob and Alma straight through the heart.
He has his eyes on another young pair,
Jack and Lucille, you'd better beware!

God helps everyone who gets what he needs—
'Tis Joanne Withee who sponsors this creed.

Here is Bob Shearer, the handsome (?), the bold.
He knows everything without being told.

Step forward, McCarthy, handsome young chap:
Beware of the women; they're your handicap.

Billy Moran, a true son of Erin,
Of talkin' of it he'll never be tirin'.

Why, here's Gilchrist who stands by the door.
None but the Seniors come in any more.

Here are Smoot and Showalter, bright little misses,
You'd be surprised what they get in the way of kisses.

Miss Musgrave: Tomorrow we will take the life of Shelley. Please come prepared.

Mr. White: Helen, what are the three divisions of the government?

Helen C.: Why, I'm absent today, Mr. White.

Mr. White: Ah! Pardon me. Miss Davis, will you answer the question.

Mr. Taylor: Jeanette, what is the nominative singular of "ordine"?

Jeanette: I don't know.

Mr. Taylor: That's right: "ordo." Don't you wish you'd get such a break?

DEFINITIONS

The Chinese definition of trouble is two women under the same roof.

A Pretzel is a doughnut gone crazy.

Ignorance is when you don't know something and someone finds it out.

Sandwich is an unsuccessful attempt to make both ends meat.

What is being married to two women called?

Polygamy.

Good! When you are only married to one, what is it called?

Monotony.

One of the teachers happened to see Charles Miller carrying a Christian Herald around with him and asked if it was a joke on him or the Herald. Which is it?

What if—

You lost your appetite at Entre Nous?
Junior High Students didn't run through the corridors?
We didn't have school dances?
Betty would lose Sam?
Bob Shearer had a stationary desk?
Tramp day had succeeded?
Several Senior II's would get married?
The members of the Student Council walked on the grass?
Louise O'Donnell got here on time?
Albert Farnsworth graduated?
Bill Moran couldn't dance?

Miss Hughes: Someone put his hand over Frank Reece's mouth.

Franklin: Impossible.

Miss Hughes: I know it wouldn't cover it, but—

Ask Helen Cain and Timmie Griffin if they like to snowball.

Wonder where Jack Schulur got his black eye—What about it, Lucille?

Why is Clyde Kelly so interested in Liquor control?

"The Man of My Dreams" would have

Bill Schneider's nose,
Clyde Kelly's hair,
Joe Miller's ears,
Billy Wilson's smile,
Joe Beckwith's voice,
J. Rector Britton's manners,
Bryan Piercy's athletic ability,
Bob Shearer's feet and stride,
Raymond Breckenridge's beard,
Bill Prunty's freckles,
Jack Cassell's personality,
Bill Moran's way,
And Eddie McDonough's green tie.

"The Perfect 'Stenog' " would have

Dorothy Tigner's voice,
Vivia Stukey's dimples,
Phyllis Schmidt's hair,
Jeanette Bartels's lips,
Helen Cain's blush,
Betty Kearns's walk,
Betty Bauer's wit,
Mary E. Simpson's giggle,
Maxine McCarty's talent,
Kathryn Gibson's disposition,
And Charlotte Ferguson's winsome manner.

For five cents, you may buy from "Doc" a pamphlet telling the point of these jokes.
